

Small number, big results

Accomplish a lot with just a little number from Key Equipment Finance.

Your business may qualify for 0 and 2.9% financing on new Synergis Engineering Design Solutions software acquisitions. For the same low rate, you can also finance shipping, installation, training and other related expenses.

The great rate

For a limited time, Key Equipment Finance offers an exceptionally low rate for financing your new business equipment – just 0 and 2.9%.¹

A prudent approach

Financing may offer the most sensible approach to acquiring new business equipment. For example, you can enjoy money-saving tax benefits² that provide a hedge against inflation and volatile interest rates.

Capital conservation

In addition to tax benefits, financing is a great way to conserve working capital – or to invest it for other uses.

100% financing

More good news: You can also apply the same low rate to 100% financing. For example, hardware, software, equipment, training, installation, shipping and other expenses can all be bundled into one low monthly payment.

Easy application

Finance with Key Equipment Finance and you'll discover some pleasant surprises, such as streamlined paperwork, quick processing and a hands-on support staff.

Stop obsolescence

Concerned about your business equipment becoming outdated or limiting growth and expansion? With our Technology Refresh option, you can easily update your assets during your finance term.
